

ACC COUNSELLING SUPPORT SERVICE

FREE INDEPENDENT COUNSELLING

ACC's Counselling Support Service* has been set up to help people of all faiths and none who are experiencing difficult feelings, thoughts and circumstances due to COVID-19 and are either

- a key worker / NHS staff / work within an NHS setting, e.g. ancillary staff
- a worker / manager in a residential care home who has been impacted by caring for people who have COVID-19
- someone who has been bereaved at this time, whether due to COVID-19 or another reason

*This is not a work based scheme and your employer will not know that you have referred yourself for counselling.

up to ten sessions on a no-fee basis online or by telephone

visit www.acc-uk.org or call 024 7644 9694

Our counsellors are all working in a voluntary capacity and according to professional standards and codes of ethics and practice.

ACC is the Association of Christian Counsellors, which holds an accredited register of counsellors under the Professional Standards Authority. If you are a registered counsellor and would like to apply to volunteer for the service, please contact us on office@acc-uk.org.