

Relief and Development Forum

Justice and advocacy: local church, local change

Tuesday 19 November 2013

Resources List

1. MA in Justice, Advocacy and Reconciliation in Intercultural Contexts, at Redcliffe College: <http://www.redcliffe.org/Courses/MissionalMAcourses/JusticeandMission>

2. Micah Network resources

Theological perspectives on God of Justice and Human Rights, and a list of useful Advocacy Resources: <http://www.micahnetwork.org/resource-topics?topic=advocacy>

Beyond Thun 2012 - <http://www.micahnetwork.org/library/articles/beyond-thun-2012>

3. Tearfund resources

Tearfund's advocacy resources, for development organisations, grassroots development workers, communities and churches:

http://tilz.tearfund.org/en/themes/advocacy/how_to_do_advocacy/

Church and Advocacy resources (including case studies):

http://tilz.tearfund.org/en/themes/church/church_and_advocacy/

Using mobile phone technology in advocacy: <http://www.frontlinesms.com/>

Using online technology in advocacy: <https://www.tacticaltech.org/>

Suggestions for planning and designing advocacy indicators to enable monitoring, measurement and evaluation of advocacy work: <http://my.bond.org.uk/impact-builder>

4. VIVA links and resources

The advocacy story from the CRANE network in Kampala through Community Albums video links:

A film about how the CRANE network with the participation of children put together an advert which was shown on national TV

<http://www.communityalbums.com/video/children-are-worth-our-time-behind-scenes>

A film about a song and video created by children from the CRANE network - how the issue was identified, children's voices on the issues, and how the song was put together, played nationally and played to the Ugandan Parliament

<http://www.communityalbums.com/video/please-dont-leave-me-unattended>

Children from the CRANE network interviewed on children's TV about the song

<http://www.communityalbums.com/video/crane-children-national-television>

A report on National Uganda TV about the CRANE network and the work they are doing in Advocacy

<http://www.communityalbums.com/video/ntv-news-5-june-2010>