

Multicultural Mission Teams

- 'Doing Member Care Well'
- Edited by Kelly O'Donnell
- WEA, Pasadena CA, 2002

Sense of Community

- Membership – belonging
- Influence – having and being
- Fulfilment – meeting needs
- Sharing – emotional connections

Strengths

- Diversity of the Body of Christ
- Model intercultural relations
- Cultural sensitivity
- Less political
- Enriched and complementary
- Example and encouragement

Problems - leadership

- Talking vs. listening
- Relationship vs. task orientated
- Egalitarian vs. hierarchy
- Age vs. youth
- Gender issues

Problems - lifestyle

- Language and truth
- Family issues
- Time
- Unity
- Space
- Food
- Romance

Problems - ministry

- Spirituality
- Worship
- Evangelism

Conclusion

- Takes time to establish a sense of community
- Need to understand varying cultural values
- Requires a 'serving one another' approach
- Strength in diversity for Mission

Case Studies

1. Field Director visit to Central Asia
2. Disunity in the increased team
3. Appointing a new team leader
4. Love in the air
5. Wives support group