

Cross and Crescent

A study course, developed by Colin Chapman, on Islam for Christians

This study course was developed with ordinary Christians in mind to help to explain the beliefs and practices of Muslim neighbours and colleagues in a way that encourages them to build up friendships and share their faith appropriately, without worrying about causing offence. Some basic comparisons are made between Islam and Christianity and advice is given on understanding questions asked from a Muslim perspective. This book is designed to be studied in groups, over five sessions but remains an invaluable resource book long after the course is completed.

This course book is available from Global Connections, www.globalconnections.org.uk

